

Treaty #3 Youth Body Empowerment Week & Sweetgrass Film Festival Schedule

Friday November 23, 2012 DAY ONE

Opening Gala

Location: Bijou, Kenora at 5PM

Welcoming reception & Opening remarks, Screenings, Multimedia installation & acoustic performance by Sarah Decarlo & other surprise performances!

Saturday November 24, 2012 DAY TWO

Midwifery Youth Video Production

Location: WON Community Hall – 9am-1:30pm

Mentors: Jesse Green (Strongfront productions) & Sarah Decarlo

An opportunity for youth to get hands on experience in video production! Registration limited to 15. Register now!

Afternoon program: Video Screenings & Discussion

Location: Century Cinema at 2pm

“Maazh-ko-we-da-mowin: I have the tools (spiritually, mentally, physically, emotionally) in life”

Grand Council Treaty #3 Youth Injury Prevention Video

Launch & Discussion with Jesse Terry

Other video screenings including Treaty #3 Health Role Models

Evening program: Video Screenings, Play reading & Discussion

W.O.N community hall at 7pm

Theme: Womens resilience and strength

The hours that Remain- play reading featuring: Tania Cameron, Laura Cotton, Don Kavanaugh

Discussion with playwright Keith Barker

Sunday November 25, 2012

Peer facilitation Youth Training

WON Community Hall -9AM – 3PM

Facilitated by Alexa Lesperance & Jessica Yee Danforth. An opportunity for youth to learn leadership & empowerment skills they can apply at home in the community! Limited capacity. Please register!

Breakfast and a movie

10 AM: Women's Place

Screenings: Nancy Says No

Water Screenings & Closing Feast

4pm WON community Hall

Screenings: Niipii, In Memoriam, Water Journey, Flooding Hope: The Lake St Martin First Nation Story

Keynote speaker: Josephine Mandamin

Review of youth video production footage on midwifery